

WEEKLY LEADERSHIP CONNECTION

Friday, February 20, 2015

● DISTRICT MESSAGE

This week has been interesting, mainly because of the snow that has kept us from being in school the entire week. The good thing is, like Robert Frost said, “the work must go on so that the dream will never die.” That may have been Senator Teddy Kennedy’s version, but one of my favorite quotes.

The Senior Leadership Team met each day in person or virtually. Through our work this week, we once again were committed to the continuous improvement process. As we completed the 2015 Leadership Assessment, which is also required for the upcoming diagnostic review, we evaluated just how much we, as a team – including all stakeholders, have done since March 2014. The 2015 Leadership Assessment is now posted, all 22 pages, on the district’s homepage under the Standards for Quality link. What we are most proud of is our teamwork and communication. But we still strive for more. Though our vision is to become a “District of Distinction,” and to earn SACs Accreditation, our work, and our improvement will never stop. As the bar will always be raised each year.

During the March 12th School Leadership Team meeting we will share with you the Standards for Quality Schools, the document, the process we will be utilizing extensively next year in all schools as we prepare for the accreditation process. The Standards for Quality allows the district to connect all systems – all schools – working toward the same goals. If you get a chance, review the standards and concept maps. If you need a copy, any member of the Senior Leadership Team can send you both documents.

As I conclude, I want to stress the amount of work the district has done and that is a testament to all Fleming County stakeholders. I am so thankful for being part of this journey and I appreciate what you do each day. We are Pumped!

One last item, I typed this on my iPad in route to training in an Airport – I am slowly overcoming my reluctance to using a keyboard with an iPad – Steve Jobs would not be happy. Sorry Steve!

As a reminder, you can now follow Mr. Creasman on Twitter at #FCSSuper where you can receive information, snapshots of events, or even “Moments of Distinction.”
