3. Approval of Meeting Minutes – Action

a. October 18, 2021

Minutes were reviewed. Members approved by consensus.

4. Approval of Financial Reports – Action

a. School Activity Funds

i. October 2021

Financial reports were reviewed. We purchased some shirts from Cafe De Morales for student enhancement. We will have some pretty big purchases in the athletics department to make in upcoming weeks including concessions. Members did not have questions.

b. School Instructional Funds

i. October 2021

Instructional funds report was reviewed. Teachers are cashing in their $100 to spend on their classrooms pretty rapidly at this point since the deadline is Christmas break. Members did not have questions.

5. FRYSC Update - Mendy High

Mrs. High shared her update. Funding is typically around $80,000 to service the middle and high school. In July, Mrs. High conducted golf camps, conferences, mentor programs for incoming 7th graders, and collected food for Carlisle flooding incident.

In August, there were 137 7th graders that attended open house, and 106 8th graders. YSC took care of some bills for family’s in Aug and conducted an after school workshop for mothers and daughters.

In September Mendy worked on a YSC grant which covered things like ACT mock event. There were lots of home visits in September and October. Other Upcoming events are social emotional surveys and conferences. There have been several mental health referrals through this survey. After school activities will help with these motivations and peer/social skills areas that these students are struggling with. Ideas are intramurals, crafting activities, art classes, and other suggestions just to allow students to work on connecting with others.
