

FLEMING COUNTY YOUTH SERVICE CENTER

What is the Youth Service Center?

Youth Service Centers were created as part of The Kentucky Education Reform Act. The intent of the center is to enhance students' abilities to succeed in school by assisting children and families to the needs that impact the educational process. While providing services at the center and in the schools, and also by linking families to agencies within our community, the youth service centers primary goal is eliminate any barrier that may affect student success.

A child's success in school will promote life long health, security and happiness. The Youth Service Center will assist families and identify and address barriers to success within the home and the community. The center encourages and develops social networks to help families to be a part of their community

Who is it for?

The Youth Service Center is available to all families with children who attend Simons Middle School and Fleming County High School. Service and activities are provided regardless of family income.
